

Bandung Philharmonic
CONDUCTING VIRTUAL MASTER CLASS
February 26-27, 2021
08.00 – 11.00 AM

ACTIVITIES and RESPOSIBILITES

The Bandung Philharmonic is pleased to announce the Conducting Virtual Master Class 2021 with Music Director, Robert Nordling.

Open to Indonesian conductors, those selected as Virtual Master Class participants will receive detailed instruction, individual practical feedback and extended conversation with other conductors and with Maestro Nordling. A public virtual concert featuring pre-recorded work of each Conducting participant will close the Master Class on February 28.

SESSIONS will include:

- 'Studying the Score: Learning to Understand the Composer's Ideas'
- 'Conducting During COVID – Get Busy!'
- Individual feedback and discussion with each Conductor
- Live Q&A Group Zoom Session

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Indonesian conductors are eligible to apply.
2. Applicants must submit a video recording (include the scores) with one of the options below :
 - a. A recent performance or rehearsal – (not earlier than 2019). Video can be up to 10' in length and must run continuously – unedited. Video can be either a complete work or an excerpt. It can be an MP4 file, a YouTube video or any other standard digital format. It must be filmed facing the conductor – from behind the ensemble.
 - b. Make one video of yourself conducting a complete work or an excerpt. Using a YouTube video performances as your background, video-record yourself conducting. Video can be up to 10' in length. The sound in the submitted video must be clear and loud enough to be heard. The conductor must be seen fully from head to toe in the video, well-lighted and facing the camera in front. The outermost limits of the conducting hands must be seen in view.
3. Applicants will provide 2 letters of recommendation from teachers, performers or conductors who are familiar with your work.
4. Applicants will attach a list of works conducted in performance, in rehearsal and works you have studied.
5. Applicants may also include other sample programs, written reviews and other supporting material with their application.

INFORMATION

1. For Active Participant, please send all the requirements to email : info@bandungphilharmonic.org with Subject : CONDUCTING VIRTUAL MASTER CLASS, the latest 31 January 2021. There are :
 - application form
 - video recording
 - score
 - 2 letters of recommendations
 - list of work conducted
 - other supporting material (if any)

2. Active Participant Fee is IDR 1.000.000,- and Passive Participant Fee is IDR 400.000,-
(Accepted applicants will have to finish the payment before 14 February 2021)

3. Please send the payment to (please read carefully the account number) :
 - BCA
 - No. 279 277 8888
 - Name : Yayasan Bandung Philharmonic

4. All the video recording submitted will be selected by maestro Robert Nordling, and the result will be announced 10 February 2021

5. If there are any question please contact 0821 1806 5573